

Buoyant lifeline

www.DX-marine.com
DESIGN BY DX-MARINE

Technical parameter

- Material: polyamides
- Length: 30m
- Strength: 2700kg
- Diameter: Φ 12mm
- Certification: manufacturer certification

Scope of application

- Necessary for swimming pool;
- Necessary for marine fishing boat;
- Necessary for marine life saving;
- Necessary for outdoor sports.

Life rope features

- High strength;
- Small elongation;
- Good resistance;
- Strong pulling force;
- Floating;
- Anti aging;
- Corrosion prevention.

Precautions for the use and storage of the lifesaving rope

- When used, the rope can not be overloaded with the impact or load, otherwise, there will be broken and even broken rope.
- Should be stored in a dry and ventilated place at ordinary times, in order to prevent mildew change.
- The use of washing. After soaking should be promptly put in ventilated dry place or dry, avoid long time exposure.
- Frequent inspection, if the rope wear is found to be larger or more than 1 / 2 strands are worn off, should be stopped use immediately.
- The user should check the load regularly, if no broken stock or breakage, the user can continue to use it.
- The lifeline in the custody, avoid contact with the sharp objects. If acid or alkali substance is contaminated, it should be rinsed and dried immediately.